

The Troy

Newcomers Topics

Darcel Connors, Socials

I have been in this club for many, many years and held many positions on our board. But, none of them intimidated me as much as this one. The idea of coming up with fun, original events for our club members to enjoy almost drove me to an anxiety attack. The Social Chairs who came before me left an amazing legacy that is hard to top. It turns out my anxiety was not warranted. Once I really started to think about it and did a google search I did come up with a couple things. And the Socials I have taken part in were all the more enjoyable given the great company they were shared with. But, that being said I would love your help with ideas.

Our Charities for 2017-2018

Darlene Glaze, Advisor

There were 3 charities we chose to donate to this year - The Rainbow Connection submitted by Sherry Dittrich, Shades of Pink submitted by Darlene Glaze, and Rogers School in Pontiac, Michigan submitted by Denise Matthews. The Rainbow Connection (<https://www.rainbowconnection.org>) makes a wish come true for children in Michigan who have a life threatening medical condition. The Rainbow Connection has granted 3,445 wishes since 1985. Our group donated $500.00. Shades of Pink Foundation (shadesofpinkfoundation.org) helps breast cancer patients in Southeastern Michigan. Shades of Pink Foundation is committed to easing the financial burden of a breast cancer diagnosis for patients in the Detroit metropolitan area. We donated $500.00. Rogers Elementary is part of the School District of the City of Pontiac. Rogers School services at-risk students from low income households. Budgets to replace building and classrooms items continue to be reduced, so teachers and administrators spend their own salaries to purchase what is needed. We donated $200.00.

Photos on the Website

Barbara Emmer, Website Coordinator

Occasionally we put photos of our events on our website. This could be a recruiting tool to show others how much fun we have in our Club. There would NOT be any names associated with the photos. I understand that some people are very private and would not want their face on a public website. So, if you do NOT want your photo on our website, please either email me at busy_be@comcast.net or call me at 248-828-7031 by November 30, 2018. If you have already told me you don't want your picture on the website, you do NOT have to contact me again.

Alternatively, if you have pictures that you think would be good for our website, please email them to me at the above address.

I have a couple Social activities planned for November and December that are time sensitive and require advance purchase of tickets. I wanted to give as much heads up as I could regarding them, so you would be able to plan your calendar accordingly. Please let me know as soon as possible if you are able to join us for these fun activities! Darcel (248)396-5371 cell, email: darcelc@prodigy.net.

November 3rd, Saturday 7:00pm: Ridley's Comedy Castle, $25 per person. Craig Shoemaker will be the headlining comedian that night and he is funny! He has been doing stand up for more than 3 decades and performed for major TV and Cable networks. He currently writes for the new sitcom Fuller House and has hosted his own syndicated radio show, among many other accomplishments. I have personally seen him perform 2 times and was not disappointed. His shows fill up quickly, so I want to get an idea of how many of us would be going so I can get a set of tickets together.

December 6th, Thursday 6:30pm: Mosaic Holiday Ornament $15 per person. We will be traveling to Royal Oak to the Song and Spirit Studios for a mosaic tile class. We will be making a heart shaped ornament in your choice of several colors, very similar to the photo below. Refreshments will be served and the class will last a couple hours at least. Items will be grouted at a later time. I will pick up and deliver to you. The studio can only accommodate 25 people, so RSVP soon!

ROSE AWARDS

Each month, September through May, Rose Awards are given in appreciation to members who have made an outstanding contribution to our club. White Rose Awards are presented to Board members and Red Rose Awards to non-board members. The Troy Newcomers Club is truly grateful for the time these women take out of their busy schedules and the extraordinary effort they put forth on behalf of our Club.

WHITE ROSES – September 2018

Marie Watson – Secretary

Marie took a couple of months off this summer from babysitting. Instead she did something different. (Of course, she still played golf. We know Marie loves the game.) She and Terry bought a condo (unfurnished) by Harbor Springs, MI. and spent the summer painting and updating it. They hope to get it ready by ski season so they can rent it out. She probably had a paint brush in her hand while talking to me. She's the painter and Terry keeps busy bringing her iced tea etc. Laughing she said, "He's my gopher but don't tell him. (Really, he does know and loves it she said). Terry you are so sweet. I'm sure Marie knows how lucky she is.

At home Marie is not taking it easy either. She's busy getting the addition finished at her place. Add to this, she's getting a patio and landscaping by fall. Writing about all this makes me tired and it's not even me. Getting back to the club, Marie takes part in bowling, luncheons, some daytime euchre, and some socials and of course the golf league.

Thank you, Marie, for taking on the job of recording secretary this year for our club.

Barb Emmer – Newsletter Editor and Website Administrator

Barb has been in the club for 15 years plus. She started with bowling and that has expanded to our two euchre groups, mah jong, luncheons, socials, and more. She also enjoys the trips the club has taken in the past few years. We counted and came up with four of them. She loved them all but is looking to getting a new roommate in a year or two when her husband, Eric, maybe retires and will accompany her. Outside the club, Barb enjoys playing tennis at the Troy Racquet Club and quilting which she is just learning. Her project right now is working on two T – shirt quilts for her boys. That sounds really interesting and I'm sure will be loved and appreciated by her boys. Would love to see a picture of one when completed. One of her sons is living in Michigan and the other one lives in New York on Long Island. Barb has seen a lot of landmarks while sightseeing on her trips there. Things most of us only see in pictures. She has another trip planned there this coming October.

Barb spends most of her summers at their cottage about four hours away. She keeps busy enjoying time away from city life by playing tennis and enjoying time with what she calls her "summer friends". She's even got together to play some of the games she plays with us, her "winter friends". She and Eric have been adding on to the cottage also so they will have more room to enjoy with the family. I'm sure she is looking forward to Eric retiring and them both enjoying the beauty of Michigan up north. Barb has done an awesome job keeping our website running smoothly, setting up our PayPal site, and stepping up to take on the extra responsibility of our newsletter editor when we needed it. I hope she knows how we appreciate her computer expertise. Thank you, Barb.

RED ROSES – September 2018

Gina Kossick – Daytime Euchre

Where do we start? We all know Gina, a lady full of energy, enthusiasm, and ideas. This year is no exception.

In July she went on the trip of lifetime with her family to Italy. She drove to Ohio to meet up with them and they were off to an adventure. I asked her to tell me a couple of things that really stood out for her on the trip. She said she got to take a side trip to see her mom's house. Her uncle still lives there so that made it extra special. She said that was very emotional for her as we can imagine. Also, she talked quite a bit how beautiful the Amalfi Coast was. There was also Lake Como that she said was very beautiful. That is where that heart throb, George Clooney and his wife have a home. I felt like I was there hearing about all her experiences. I was in Italy many years ago and we had a good laugh about one of her experiences I can relate to. She got one of those small rooms at one of the hotels and I said "oh, that's what my friend and I called the "nuns quarters" because she got one too. A small bed, small dresser, and maybe a small desk. No room for your suitcase. Now everyone knows we American don't travel light!

Moving on, her son is getting married next month in the Redwood Forest in California with a reception the following month here in Rochester. Sounds like Gina has some unique centerpieces in the making. I'm sure it will be beautiful. Amid all this, Gina still works in the NICU at Beaumont and is active in the club.

Thank you for all you did and continue to do for us.

Linda Marx – Ladies Game Night

Linda joined Newcomers when her daughter left for England and a number of her friends moved. Quite a few things have changed since then. She now has six grandchildren, Dick has retired, they purchased a condo in Siesta Keys, Florida, and enjoy more time at their place on Walloon Lake. Lucky for us, Troy Newcomers still has a place in her life.

She and her husband lead a busy life and are on the go. Dick is an avid skier and will be going on a Colorado ski trip early winter and after that they will be heading to England for a visit with their daughter and her family. There will be some fast turn arounds with them also squeezing some time in to enjoy the warm weather in Florida at the condo. Linda said men just don't seem to understand it takes time get ready to go from one place to another. Something I'm sure we all can agree on!

Within Newcomers, Linda participates in games night (of course), luncheons, occasionally daytime euchre, and socials.

Thank you, Linda, for continuing to chair games night for our club.

Ladies Game Night

Linda Marx, Activity Leader

We are starting our new club year by meeting at the home of Linda Marx on Wednesday, September 12th at 7:00pm. We encourage any member to join us. It is a fun evening out! It is a chance to see Newcomer friends after the summer and have some friendly competition playing board games.

If you attend regularly and haven't hosted in a while, please consider bringing an appetizer, dessert, or drinks to help out the hostess sometime during the year. Please let Linda know ahead of time so she can plan accordingly. If you will be coming, please contact Linda by Monday September 10th by emailing lindamarx0825@gmail.com or calling (248) 528-2826. We hope to see you there!

We only have hostesses for the months of January and March so far. Remember we will not have games night unless we have a hostess! So if you haven't hosted in a while, please consider hostessing again this year.

Mah Jongg

Jane Egermann, Activity Leader

Okay, I admit it – when Barb sent out the deadline for the August newsletter I was already thinking about September so the August mah jongg dates didn't get on the August calendar. BUT – if you had the foresight to be on my mah jongg email distribution list, you already knew that because I emailed you with a reminder about our August play dates. (See what you miss when you don't sign up???)

So don't miss out again. Sign up now even if you don't yet know how to play. We'll be glad to teach you! New players are always welcome. Come see how much fun you can have washing tiles, building walls and doing the Charleston! We meet on the second Friday of the month (September 14) at 9:30 am and the fourth Friday (September 28) at 1 pm. Hope to see you!

Please contact Jane at jane48085@yahoo.com or 248-879-5512 if you are interested.

Scrapbooking

Denise Matthews

It's hard to believe summer is coming to an end and another Newcomer year is getting started! Hopefully all of you enjoyed the summer holidays and have had an opportunity to go on a vacation or two. If so, that probably means you have taken some photos of these special times with family and friends. Instead of putting them in a photo album, why not make a scrapbook to showcase your memories?

Our scrapbooking group will be meeting this month for an evening session on Tues, Sept 25 from 6-11pm. Debbie Risko will be hosting this session at her home in Troy. We are a group made up of all levels of experience and welcome new members who are curious to find out what this fun activity is all about. We can even help by sharing some of our materials to get you started, just bring your pictures! Contact Debbie at dgrisko1@gmail.com by Sunday, Sept 23 if you would like to attend. If you have any questions please call me, Denise Matthews, at 248-214-4498. Hope to see you there!
